

AJS 42nd ANNUAL CONFERENCE
DECEMBER 19-21, 2010 • BOSTON

In order to submit a proposal to the AJS Conference, graduate students must meet the following criteria by the submission deadline: 1) they must have completed their coursework and comprehensive/qualifying exams; 2) their dissertation prospectus must be approved; 3) they must be at the stage of writing their dissertation; and 4) their conference proposal must reflect their doctoral research. Graduate students should complete Section I of this form and have their primary thesis advisor complete Section II. Conference proposals will not be considered without the Advisor Evaluation Form.

I. STUDENT, PLEASE COMPLETE:

Student Name:

Academic Affiliation:

Year Ph.D. Expected:

Proposal Title:

Division Name (see Call for Papers, section VII):

Please answer:

- | | | |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Yes | <input type="checkbox"/> No | I have completed my coursework and comprehensive/qualifying exams. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Yes | <input type="checkbox"/> No | My dissertation prospectus has been approved. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Yes | <input type="checkbox"/> No | I am at the stage of writing my dissertation. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Yes | <input type="checkbox"/> No | My conference proposal reflects doctoral research. |
-

II. ADVISOR, PLEASE COMPLETE:

Advisor Name:

Position:

Institution:

Email address:

Telephone:

Evaluation: On the next page or on an attached sheet, please assess the suitability of the proposed presentation for the 2010 AJS Conference, with particular attention to its contribution to scholarship. Please confirm by signing at the bottom of the next page that this student has met the criteria for submitting a proposal. We must receive your signed recommendation by May 13, 2010 in order for your student's proposal to be considered. Thank you.

Confidential Advisor Evaluation Form for Student Proposals

*Deadline for Receipt: *May 13, 2010

Evaluation:

I hereby certify that the above graduate student: 1) has completed their coursework and comprehensive/qualifying exams; 2) has received approval for their dissertation prospectus; 3) is at the stage of writing their dissertation; and 4) has submitted a conference proposal that reflects their doctoral research.

Advisor Signature:

Date:

Please mail this form to: AJS, 15 West 16th Street, New York, NY 10011