

AJS 42nd ANNUAL CONFERENCE TRAVEL GRANTS

Deadline for Receipt of Application: Tuesday, September 7, 2010

Please e-mail, fax, or mail application to: AJS 15 W. 16th Street NY, NY 10011

Fax: 917.606.8222 E-mail: ajs@ajs.cjh.org (please note in subject heading: TRAVEL GRANT)

I. Contact/Professional Information

Name:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

Institutional Affiliation:

Position/Title:

Conference Role (please indicate subject area division to which you submitted your proposal and paper title if presenting a paper):

Are you a graduate student? Yes ___ No ___

If you answered yes, go directly to Section II. If you answered no, please complete below questions.

If you hold an academic position, please clarify if you are:

Tenured ___ Tenure-track ___ Adjunct ___ Post-doc ___

If you hold an academic position, please clarify your rank:

Assistant Prof. ___ Associate Prof. ___ Full Prof. ___ Lecturer ___
Emeritus ___

Are you employed (in an academic or non-academic position):

Part-time ___ Full-time ___ Unemployed ___ Retired ___

II. Grant Options On the next page, please check the grant(s) for which you are applying.

Applicants may apply to more than one grant program, but will be awarded at most one grant. Please see specific travel grant eligibility requirements at <http://www.ajsnet.org/callforpapers.htm#travel> before submitting an application.

Please note: The Hadassah-Brandeis Institute's Rosalie Katchen Travel Grant in Gender Studies; the Women's Caucus Graduate Student Travel Grants in Gender Studies; and the Prize for Innovative Scholarship in Gender and Jewish Studies must be applied for separately. See <http://www.ajsnet.org/callforpapers.htm#travel> for application instructions.

____ Center for Jewish History Travel Grants

For those presenting work based upon research conducted at the Center for Jewish History.

____ Charles and Lynn Schusterman Family Foundation Travel Grants

For those presenting research on Israel studies.

____ Lucius N. Littauer Foundation Travel Grants

For untenured faculty and independent scholars without full-time employment (subject area open).

____ Maurice Amado Foundation Travel Grants

For those presenting research on Sephardic studies.

____ Posen Foundation Travel Grants

For those presenting research on secular Jewish history and cultures.

____ Tikvah Fund Travel Grants

For those presenting research on Jewish thought, philosophy, and theology.

III. Conference Travel Support Information

You may use a separate sheet of paper to respond to the following questions.

1. What is the total amount of institutional support for ALL conference travel you will receive for the 2010-11 academic year? Please specify what funding covers (e.g., registration fee, hotel, meals, etc.).

2. Have you used, or do you plan to use, any institutional travel support to attend other conferences this academic year? If so, please explain how much these other conference expenses came/will come to.

3. Do you anticipate receiving conference travel support from any other sources outside your home institution? If so, please specify.

4. What is your travel budget for the AJS conference (please specify projected transportation and hotel expenses only; the AJS travel grants do not cover meals, registration fees, etc.).

5. Applicants for the Center for Jewish History Travel Grants only: Please specify how your conference presentation relates to research conducted at the Center for Jewish History. Please note when you conducted this research, and which specific collections you used.